

HOW LOVE

dear dorris,
me and my girlfriend
never argue.
Is this good or bad?

Arguments are totally healthy & great

because they show that you respect your beloved

enough to have an opinion
on their views

rather than not engaging with any problems.

Sometimes we say something
cruel in an argument

but these will only
cause continuing pain

and although anything
we say may loom over us

afterwards we can look at them from afar

and they may seem quite silly

So we can go back to how we were

and the air is clear.
